PART II TEACHING PLAN

Introduction

ATTENTION: As we come to the end of the school year, it is time to have the top three cadets drill the flight, as selected from the last weeks of drill by the cadets.

MOTIVATION: Do you, as an individual, believe that you are qualified to be one of the best in our unit?

OVERVIEW: The drill by the top cadets will allow everyone to learn how their command voice should perform and how to give commands.

TRANSITION: FALL IN!

Body

NOTE: The instructor will have the selected cadets drill the entire flight for about fifteen (15) minutes each. The instructor will continue to evaluate each cadet's performance, keeping in mind the selection for Honor Cadet. The instructor may have the three cadets inspected, evaluated on their overall standing within the unit, other classes, etc., prior to making the final decision for Honor Cadet. Honor Cadet should be announced at the end of this meeting.

The instructor will have selected cadets drill the flight using all of the previously learned movements as listed below, changing cadets every fifteen (15) minutes.

Conclusion

SUMMARY: During the period you have been drilled by the top three cadet drill leaders using all of the previous learned movements.

REMOTIVATION: This is a good time to pay attention to these cadets and learn how commands are given and how to use the command voice.

CLOSURE: FALL OUT!
